LOCAL JOTTINGS.

The boom is on. Full speed ahead, Strathmore!

Main Street, Strathmore, is building up fast. Four new stores, a fire hall, and a large hotel extension all in course of erection on one street is certainly going some.

A meeting of Strathmore carpenters was held on Tuesday to discuss the wages question and the proposed formation of a Union. Another meeting will be held to-night.

Mr Geo. Lloyd commenced work this week on the excavation of the cellar for his new hotel extension. The details of this have already been given in the "Standard," but it may be said that it will employ a large amount of labor, and will be a credit to the town when completed.

"In the Spring the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." It also turns naturally to thoughts of new spring suits. Young man, turn to Tommy Wright's ad. on page 5 of this paper. Then pay a visit to his store at the Dull Block. He can show you everything inuring suitings that your fancy can desire.

The Fire Brigade was called out on Thursday to a small fire caused by burning stable litter in front of Mr M. B. Garrett's house.

A lanky individual wandered into the King Edward Hotel the other night and spun a tale of woe which secured him sympathy and several drinks. A practical-minded person pointed out to him a gentleman at the other end of the room who was looking for help, and suggested he should ask him for a job. "Oh," waived the stranger, "I can't. I've never been introduced," and forthwith faded into the night air.

Mr. E. E. Warren is back in Strathmore again, after a three weeks' visit to the States.

Mr A. Menzies visited his brother, Mr Fred Menzies, at Strathmore this week.

Mrs Hill and Mrs Morey, of Langdon, were here this week as guests of Mrs Lloyd.

Mr H. R. Markinson, of Hamford, North Dakota, was here on Wednesday and purchased some land.

Mr and Mrs W. Knight spent some days this week in town.

The silver wedding of Mr and Mrs H. A. Michaels will take place on Friday, March 25. The occasion will be fittingly celebrated. Congratulations.

Twenty-six carpenters arrived in town on Thursday. They are all employed on the large immigration hall the C.P.R. is erecting.

A notable visitor here this week was Mr Hills, of Seattle, Wash. Mr Hills recently bought 12 sections of land near Cassilis, in the eastern section of the irrigation block, and will seed 3000 acres with flax this spring. While here he made a large purchase of seed through Mr Lilly, local agent of the Alberta Pacific Elevator Coy.

The wife of Mr Hays, Strathmore, arrived at Calgary on Thursday from the States.

We regret to record the death recently of Miss Shoemaker, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Shoemaker, Strathmore.

Mr C. W. Chase sold a carload of wire fencing last week. Good business.

Foresters' Ball.

The masquerade ball, held on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the newly-organized Strathmore Court of the Independent Order of Foresters, proved a great success. The attendance was large and included some from outside points, and many of the costumes were original and effective.

Mrs Lloyd and Mr Chas Martin were adjudged to wear the two best costumes, Mrs Lloyd being attired in a Japanese costume, and carrying a large and highly decorated parasol, while Mr Martin appeared as a "coon" in a well-selected swaggar suit. Mr Ora Buggeren also appeared in a similar costume. Mr Charley O'Bray made a capital clown, and Mr E. E. Hughes had an original costume, one side of which was black and the other white, while the dividing color line was continued up from his boots to his face, the left and right sides of which presented striking contrasts. This, he explained, was intended to represent Buchanan's "Black and White."

Mr Starratt appeared as a monk, while Mr Orie Evans appeared in a white frilled nightgown, borrowed, presumably, from some lady acquaintance. Space forbids us mentioning any more of the costumes, though many others deserve mention. Excellent music was provided by an orchestra consisting of Miss Simmonds, Messrs Hirtle and McCarty.

Back to the Land.

LARGE NUMBERS OF SETTLERS WILL ARRIVE IN A FEW DAYS.

C.P.R. BUILDING IMMIGRATION HALL AT STRATHMORE.

As an index of the large numbers of settlers expected into the district this year, the fact that the C.P.R. is at present building a large immigration hall in Strathmore, opposite the police barracks, is striking. The building was commenced on Thursday and is being rushed up speedily by the large gang of men engaged in its construction.

The Crown Lumber Co has the contract for the erection, which will have to be ready for use very soon, as a large party are on the way from Britain to occupy the so-called improved farms some 12 miles north of Strathmore. Fifty acres in each of these farms are already broken, and sown with winter wheat, while houses for the settlers are in course of erection. Mr L. C. Corwin, of Strathmore, has secured the contract for the digging of the wells on the farms.

The influx into Strathmore district this year will be enormous, and can only be gauged from the fact that 200,000 acres of land in this section were sold this year, the majority being in quarter and half sections.

Mr N. J. Lindgren, who was up in Strathmore last week with a party of landseekers, stated that he would bring up within a few weeks twenty-seven carloads of settlers from South Dakota.

Settlers for Alberta.

The following from a Calgary daily shows in a measure the wonderful immigration into this district:

"1000 British agriculturalists, all coming to Alberta, were on the Hespan with us" is the statement made by the advance guard of the party arriving in Calgary, March 15. "American's are becoming frantic to acquire some of the continent's last cheap land, and in some neighborhoods it would appear that everyone is coming to Alberta," is the statement made by Americans now shipping in their effects. "Ontario Quebec and the maritime provinces are now alive to the possibilities of this section and will, this year, come out in unprecedented numbers," is reported from the east.

Such in brief is record showing commencement of results from the greatest land settling and land selling campaign ever instituted.

Text of the Resolution Lord Rothery Will Introduce This Week

London—When Lord Rothery launches his plan for the reform of the House of Lords, will the resolutions embodying the course of the House of Lords be modified themselves. There is little question of the House of Lords being of the House of Lords.

Exhibition Grain.

While the farmers of this vicinity are selecting their seed, etc., for this year's crop, they ought not to forget the splendid premium that will be offered by the Alberta Provincial Exhibition, in Calgary, next July, for the best acre yield of all the different grains. If the farmers have any way of knowing the exact yield of grain from exact acreage, then it might be well to have some of that grain properly cleaned, and sent to Calgary. The Exhibition Association will pay the freight on all exhibits to Calgary and return, so that the farmers will be not anything out, even if their grain should not take a premium. Very handsome prizes are offered in this particular field, and we trust that all the farmers that can will make entries.

The Farmers' Union. IMPORTANT MEETING ON SATURDAY.

The meeting of Strathmore district of the C.F.A., held on Saturday, was well attended, and a number of business matters were discussed.

D. S. Boissevain will instruct himself and open the discussion of "Fertilization of Soil" for this district, at next meeting, March 26, at 2 p.m., in Lloyd's Hall.

At same meeting Mr. W. G. Way will open the subject for discussion on "Hail Insurance," and Mr. Oscar Weller on "Hog Raising and Pork Packing Industry."

Prof. Elliott has consented to remark and invite discussion on "Fertilization of Soil."

Farmers are requested to bring in results of their observations as to the condition of fall wheat.

The following motion was passed at last meeting—

"The Boys' Potato Contest be confined to Strathmore this year, and the Secretary send notice to the other unions of what Strathmore Union No. 28 is doing, with a view of having all districts unite in a united contest for 1911."

The wording of the above motion might tend to convey an impression that the contest was limited to Strathmore entirely, but this is not so. Strathmore Union is the only one taking up the scheme officially this year, and the motion expresses the hope that other districts will take it up next year.

Boys' Potato Contest.

RULES GOVERNING IT.

1. Boys entering the contest must be under fifteen years of age, when the contest is begun.
2. The boy may select any variety of potato.
3. The size of the test plot will be one rod by three rods, and on this plot must only be grown six rows, running eastways, or eighteen rows sideways, (rows two and one-half feet apart).

4. Thus, the plot may be any one of the following sizes, viz: 18 rows 1 rod long; 3 rows 6 rods long; 6 rows 3 rods long; 9 rows 2 rods long; 12 rows 1 rod long; 15 rows 1 rod long.

5. The experimental plot should be located by itself, if possible, in the second time, just before digging.

6. Someone will visit the plots twice in the season. First time, after potatoes are about half grown, and the second time, just before digging.

7. The final contest will be held in Strathmore at a time decided upon by the judges.

8. Each exhibit must be accompanied by a statement, signed by the boy himself, showing:—

- (a) That, in so far as possible, all the work, with the plot was performed by the boy himself.

- (b) If any work whatever was performed by any other person, it must be clearly mentioned, giving the person's name.

- (c) The total weight of all potatoes grown.

- (d) The weight of marketable potatoes used.

- (e) The actual weight of whole potatoes used.

- (f) All the potatoes grown on the patch must be exhibited.

- (g) Each exhibit will be scored on the following basis:—

- (a) Patch clean and free from weeds (10 points first visit, 10 points second visit)..... 20 pts

- (b) Yield, (on basis of total weight of marketable potatoes) 30 pts

- (c) Uniform size, smooth, uniform, and eyes not too deep..... 30 pts

- (d) When work has been done entirely by the boy himself 10 pts

- (e) Suitable prizes will be offered by Strathmore Union No. 28.

- (f) All boys wishing to enter the contest apply to anyone of the following:—

- (a) F. W. Schettler, W. J. Elliott, J. L. Skeene.

The demand for farm implements is very heavy just now, and local dealers are doing a large trade.

A service will be held in St. Michael's Church on Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

New Methodist Church.

A LARGE PROPOSITION.

For some time past, owing to the rapid growth of the population of Strathmore, the local Methodist Church, has reached the position that it is now accommodating its full seating capacity at the Sunday services. This has caused some thought among the members, as it is certain that there will be a constant increase in the population all summer, and an effort must be made to provide facilities for their attending church services.

The result has been that some 12 or 15 members and friends met on Sunday at 2:30 p.m., at the Methodist Church, to consider the proposition of building the basement of a new church building this spring and summer for the better accommodation for gymnasium work, and what is termed men's work, and to be used for regular church purposes until the final superstructure may be built. The basement to be roofed temporarily.

Committees on estimates—gravel and cement were appointed. The idea is that Strathmore shall have a modern church building in every respect at a cost, if allowed to guess, of perhaps five thousand dollars when final plans completed.

Wedding of Councillor D. M'Colloch.

One of our best-known public men, Councillor D. M'Colloch, of the firm of Gray and M'Colloch, blacksmiths, Strathmore, was united in the bonds of matrimony on Wednesday. The bride's maiden name is Miss Lloyd, of Halifax, N.S., and the wedding took place there at the home of her parents.

Mr. M'Colloch went into business here some time ago, and previous to that he was stationed here as an officer of the R.N.W.M.P. He is an Albertan old-timer, having been in the province a period of 22 years.

The bride, Miss Lloyd, is a well-known resident of Halifax, and has been employed for the past six weeks with the firm of Mahn Bros., dry goodsmen. On the night previous to her wedding she entertained her friends and was the recipient of many handsome and costly presents, including a cheque from her father.

The happy couple left on Wednesday en route for Strathmore.

Methodist Church Concert

A large audience assembled at the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening to appreciate the efforts of the "Blues." The chairman, Mr. Zerkle, in his opening remarks explained that the "Reds" and "Blues," the two divisions of the Sunday School, competed as to which side would have the greatest number on a certain date, the latter lost, and had to entertain the winners with a concert. The program submitted was a lengthy one and of interesting variety, comprising recitations, songs, duets, sketches and instrumental solos, and many commendable efforts were among them. The most original and laughable being the "Blues" Teller, in which Messrs Seymour, Zerkle, McElhose and Irvine took part en masse, after several desperate endeavors to expound their individual topics, one by one they dropped out leaving Mr. Seymour to finish up the "muscles of the lips," in many ways more than one. The sketch "Woman's Rights" was also well carried out, the various characters being admirably sustained. The following rendered items—Messdames Bremer, Schietter, Slade, Misses Seymour, Watson (2), Johnson, Lloyd, Crossley, Lilly, M'Elhose, Messrs Irvine and Watson. The entertainment passed off successfully to the evident enjoyment of all present. A substantial sum was collected during the evening, amounting to $10, and will be applied on more song books for the use of the Sunday School.

The fact was the girl was weary of her bondage to her father's mercenary and longed for the freedom from it that marriage would give her, especially marriage with one so well liked as Hen Mucklebush, and she was hoping by this suggestion of going to town to stir her lover into some alarm at the thought of losing her and thus precipitate their betrothal and marriage. But he had been coming to see her only a few months, but where was the use of indecent delay?

"Ain't, Hen, it would be some insurance for you if I went off," she urged.

Again Hen squirmed in his chair, but he made no answer.

"But I'm thinking of going," she threatened. "How would you put in your Sunday nights with me off-Hen?"

"I'd come and see to it with a girl," he laughed out. "If her and Ale wasn't keeping company."

Olle turned and stared at him stupidly.

"But that would give her false hopes. I'd think you meant it for real. And I just like you ain't got no sense to make no promise to her."

"It would be for my own sake, Ole," Hen stammered.

But Ole did not grasp his meaning. "To anyhow best advise her?" he asked.

"Yes, she's a fine girl, but she's not the kind of a girl you want to marry. She's a question mark of a courting her."

"Would the folks here be any the wiser?" Hen asked.

"I just would take a touch of hope out of her."

"But she ain't got no sense. She's a question mark of a courting her."

"Would the folks here be any the wiser?" Hen asked.

Now that Hen had got started it seemed as if he was rolling downhill. He excited boyishly, like one who had shaken off shackles.

"Ain't you come here to set up with Emile?"

"That's what?" said Hen unconcerned.

"Why didn't you say so?"

"You didn't give me no chance. You ain't so sure I meant you, Hen. You, none of you, could see that a fellow might want Emile even if she don't have no suitor, her best's such a good looker that way."

"You just made a fool out of me, Hen Mucklebush!" Ole cried, almost choking with her shame and indignation.

"I didn't go far to do such a thing. Ole."

"Well, you kin just go home and say home," the girl said vindictively.

"Ale's home and bugged all in the town," Ole reported to her place. "I looked open the barn door and looked open, and it ain't there! She's took and went out angry riding with him."

"She wouldn't do it to go off with him unbeknownst. It ain't like her ways," Mr. Morningstar questioned this circumstantial evidence.

LESSON XII.—FIRST QUARTER.
FOR MARCH 20, 1910.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. ix, 1-13.
Memory Verse, 2-Golden Text, Matt. ix, 6-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In Luke viii, 40, we read that when Jesus returned from Gadara the people chiefly reviled Him, they were gathered to Him. In Mark i, 2, we read that many were gathered to Him, filling the house and leaving no room even about the door, and He preached the word unto them. In Luke v, 17, we read that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law present from every town in Galilee and also from Judaea and Jerusalem, and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

Then came four men, bringing on a bed a palsied friend of theirs, and when they could not get near the door because of the crowd they carried him to the roof, made an opening and let him down through the tiling, with his couch, into the midst before Jesus. Compare the records in Mark ii, and in each you hear Jesus saying to the sick man, "Thy sins are forgiven thee." Thy sins are forgiven thee. "Son, be of good cheer." In Matt. ix, 22, He said to a dumb man, "Daughter, be of good cheer." Records also "He said unto the man of Matt. xix, 27, John viii, 33, and Acts xiii, 41. It is the same word in each case, just one word, used only by our Lord and on these five different occasions it is used by Him, and it is used by the blind man in Mark x, 49. The word is a different word, but one of great import. There can be no great triumph of good cheer apart from the forgiveness of sins. Jesus did not treat symptoms, as many physicians do, but went at once to the root of the trouble, and he healed by forgiving sins. He said the faith of those who brought him and determined to heal him. He began by cleansing his soul. He once said to Simon Peter, "If I wash thee thou hast no part with Me" (John xiii, 8), and that is only a saying of great import. If we are cleansed from our sins we shall also be healed perfectly, and we shall not have to suffer from any disease. As Jesus cured this man, He also gave him a healed body, and he arose and went to his home. The four earnest men who brought their palsied friend to be healed of his disease were quite sure that if they could but get him near Jesus they would be able to carry him away, and they were not disappointed.

The question of the Pharisees, "Who art thou?" (Luke v, 21) repeated in Luke x, 13, xxi, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

It is a blessed thing for all who know that He is the Son of Man who hath come to earth to forgive sins, and that He has forgiven them, Luke says, "Ye have perceived the thoughts of these men, or, as it is in our lesson, "Who art thou?" (Luke v, 21) repeated in Luke x, 13, xxi, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Wherefore, think ye, will I in any way be able to forgive sins? (Luke v, 21) repeated in Luke x, 13, xxi, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Wherefore, think ye, will I in any way be able to forgive sins? (Luke v, 21) repeated in Luke x, 13, xxi, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Wherefore, think ye, will I in any way be able to forgive sins? (Luke v, 21) repeated in Luke x, 13, xxi, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Wherefore, think ye, will I in any way be able to forgive sins? (Luke v, 21) repeated in Luke x, 13, xxi, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Could Have Been Avoided

Mrs. Maxwell was growing accustomed to Mr. Sheppard. She enjoyed it, and was irritated when any one presumed to differ with her in opinion. When, the selling party of which she had been the victim, ransacked and trampled. Mrs. Maxwell was the only woman who could talk.

A most striking example of the growth of the Trade Mark idea in Canada is being exemplified for the first time today in the newspapers throughout the Dominion. It is the "NATURAL" line of about one hundred and twenty-five toilet and medicinal preparations, compounded by the National Drug Company, Limited.

All these preparations bear the NATURAL Trade Mark, the shield with the word "NATURAL" in the center, and to make the line still more distinctive, each series of articles is addressed in a pleasing shade of richly colored paper.

In their first advertisement, which appears on another page in this issue, the National Drug Company features the "NATURAL" line of the most important advantages to every Canadian of a household of these articles, fully recognized line, covering practically every household need in the line of medicinal and toilet articles, and guaranteed by a responsible firm.

The National Drug Company guarantees every NATURAL preparation is compounded by a qualified chemist only, and from the purest materials. These preparations have been such as the best physicians would use, and eventually cure the system, as a trial of it will prove you.

"OLD DRURY" KING.

Arthur Collins is the Manager of the Great Pantimino Theatre.

Mr. Arthur Collins, the man who makes the name of the National Theatre, the world-famous "Old Drury," in London, is a most interesting personage. The production of a pantimino is a most arduous and expensive business, and the management of British theatre is a task of huge proportions. It sets and keeps going for many months, and subsequent to the event a vast army of workers is employed.

"Regulars," some few are enthusiastic devotees, and each season brings a new ambition to eclipse the one gone before, and each season registers its own fulfilment. For years Drury Lane Theatre has been pursuing a course of pantimino excellence that every returning Christmas is pronounced by delighted audiences to be superlative.

How is this achieved? This, the scheme of the pantimino having been conceived in the mind of the manager, the work of Arthur Collins, the heads of the National Theatre are enlightened, and they suffer continually from the same ailment.

"I've seen it here, and it doesn't seem to me," he said, "that you could not put on a more show, but after taking three boxes of Pink Pills, these troubles are all gone. It is a pleasure for me to add one more testimonial to the grand reputation of the Pink Pills."

Blood Poisoning Started from Wound

An accident which threatened serious results, until DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT was applied.

No wound or hurt but what has serious possibilities unless antiseptic treatment is applied to prevent blood poisoning.

Lives are often saved by having at hand a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Its antiseptic properties prevent blood poisoning and it is so remarkably healing that cure is so much more certain.

This case will interest you. Mrs. C. Hopkins, of Georgia, writes: "I feel like thanking the printer of Dr. Chase's Ointment. One day last year while throwing my coat badly hurt by having the prongs of a fork run into his leg. In a day or two it began to get very sore and blood poisoning set in. We did everything for it but it would heal in one place and break out in another. This kept on for three months when finally we got a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Early Spring.

Plowing and seeding have been actively carried on for days past in Southern Alberta. Day and night power plows are forced to the maximum capacity, and double shifts of men being employed, and at night powerful headlights are being used to light up the prairie. While heavy shipments of engines are being received weekly, the supply is not equal to the demand, as engine manufacturers and their agents did not correctly estimate the requirements of the district, nor were they prepared for such an early opening up of spring. In proof of which, spring rains are already here and the prairie is turning green. All signs point to a season making possible a very exceptional development. At Calgary the city commissioners found it necessary, early this week, to order out the street sprinklers, including a large sprinkler operated on the street railway.

A few weeks ago an entire train load of gasoline power plows arrived in Southern Alberta, and a despatch is at hand advising that a large steam plow manufacturing company of Indiana has shipped in a train load of 30 steam plows. This enormous shipment has already left the company's works. Each of the engines is capable of plowing 2000 acres during the season, and if the weather is such that it would mean 60,000 additional acres prepared for crop. The company's representatives here states that there is marked demand for plows, and as high as $4 per acre is being paid for breaking.

KEOMA.

Hugh McKinnon has moved his family into his new house from Langdon.

Mr. Alfred Smith, of Lewiston, has just come in, and has a large farm at foot south of Keoma. He will start his spring work with all kinds of up-to-date machinery.

Mr. Grubb had a cartload of goods unloaded at Langdon this week, which had to be trucked to Keoma. When he left the States it was with the understanding that his goods would come right through to Keoma Station.

DALROY.

We regret very much that our correspondent got the subject of the debate on "Irrigation," twisted so that it appeared in a rather offensive light; but as this was rectified in the "Standard" of February 27, we do not care to carry on further correspondence which might end in unpleasant controversy.—Ed.

Messrs. Tregillis and Thayer, of Calgary, were present at the meeting of the Dalroy Club on Friday night last, and organized a Farmers' Union. It was started under the most favorable auspices with 17 active members. Mr. Dingle was elected President and Mr. Rehder secretary. The ladies served lunch and it was a most successful affair. The gentlemen from Calgary started for home, but on account of trouble with the auto, were only about as far as R. A. Landon, Esq., at daybreak.

Mr. Lewis Pratt and wife, of Butte, Mont., have moved in, and are at present stopping with Mrs. Pratt's mother, Mrs. John Calder.

At the next meeting of the Literary Club, Rev. T. A. Bowen, has been asked to give his lecture on "Bermuda." It will take place on Friday evening, March 18. The ladies as usual will serve lunch at the close of the lecture.

Mr. Scott started harvesting on land discised last on Tuesday.

Mr. F. Vanderplaat, of Sioux Centre, Iowa, with his wife and six children, arrived at Langdon this week, and when their goods arrive will take up their residence at Dalroy. It will make quite an addition to our school.

Mr. D. Timmer, and family, of the same place, are stopping in Langdon, and will reside ten miles west of here.

DELEWARE.

Mr. Marshall, from near the Sarcee reserve, is with Mr. Geo. McElroy, helping to break horses.

Mr. McElroy, senr., of Calgary, is also spending a few days with his sons.

It has improved the attendance at the Methodist services by holding their in the afternoon instead of the morning.

LANGDON NOTES.

Mrs. L. O. Harrington returned on Thursday last from an extended visit to friends in the Dakotas and Illinois.

Miss Ada Smith, of Calgary, spent Sunday at the Methodist Parsonage.

Mr. E. Moe has been appointed manager of the Crown Lumber Co., of Langdon. Mr. Golden, the former manager, has taken a position with the Riverside people, Calgary.

And Mr. Henry is managing the new Crown Yard at Cluny.

We are glad to see Mr. Fred Baker out again after his recent illness.

W. J. Thompson, of Calgary, was in town last week, and has made a start on a large warehouse, next to Marshall and Harper's hardware store.

The Imperial Oil Company are to build a large warehouse and tank here, and make this point a centre of distribution for north here.

There is talk about a Cottage Hospital being started in the town. The project should commend itself to the best people in the place, and we think would be a most successful venture.

The plans for the new Presbyterian Church came to hand last week, and it adhered to it will be a little gem of architecture.

Mr. Kenny, travelling secretary of the Alberta Sunday School Association, conducted a most successful rally in the Methodist Church on Friday last. His address was listened to with marked interest throughout, and was an inspiration to the few who in this town are trying to sustain this work, and upon whom this whole burden falls, and also a strong appeal to others to become interested and take up a work which has such a strong bearing upon the moral and spiritual uplifting of the town. Mr. Kenny's address was interspersed with flashes of wit and brilliancy as well as prominently practical, and we feel sure that on future occasions he will meet with larger audiences.

Mr. Bowen and Mr. Conn also gave addresses on S.S. work.

Mr. E. B. Washburn, of Indiana, has leased the farm of Mr. T. A. Hicks, formerly occupied by Mr. Steel, and we trust may make as good a success in the country as the former lessee.

Mr. H. W. Redman, who arrived with car of effects on Sunday last, is already making friends in the town. He and his son will occupy eleven quarters just north of the town. The family are expected to arrive from the States this week.

Mr. C. S. Arbogast is expected to return from Illinois this week, and bring his wife with him. Mr. Arbogast had to break with strong national devotion to Uncle Sam to settle in Canada, also his wife had stronger attachments to the land of the south; but they think it worth while to sell and invest in Alberta. A good crop of winter rye rewarded Mr. Arbogast's efforts last year, and we hope to have an article on his success in the future.

A start has been made on Mr. Henderson's new store, the foundation is laid and boarding in will soon follow.

Miss Thompson, of Calgary, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed. Faulkner.

Mr. T. A. Hicks entertained a number of young people at a party on Friday night, which was enjoyed very much.

Two carloads of stock and effects arrived at this point on Friday last, for points on the Langdon branch; but unfortunately the station and loading accommodation are not complete and did not warrant them being forwarded any further.

Mr. Paul A. Hardis, of Toledo, Ohio, is to settle on a section seven miles south of town, and is placing his farm under the management of a relation for the present. He reports of a company of fourteen families from the same place on their way to this part.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hymen and family of Briddis made a visit to Mr. J. Frank Hills this week.

A car arrived last Thursday of the effects of a man of Scandinavian origin.

The owner of the car was with it, but on arrival his face was in such a condition that the Council took precautions of quarantining the car for small pox. The medical authorities of Calgary could not state positively that it was small pox, and he was allowed to take his goods to his home and remain under quarantine regulations.

From now until the pastures are green your stock will need Condition Powder and Stock Food which you can get at Reduced Prices from Hill and Mory's.

Mr. A. Des Harnes, and family, have taken up residence in the C.P.R. section house, and has furnished our school with six new promising young hopefuls.

Archibald Anderson, Esq., and wife, of Hamburg, U.S., were registered at Langdon Hotel this week as prospective settlers in our town.

Mr. Smith, who last year was engaged as builder and joiner with Ed. Faulkner, returned with his wife, a son of Quebec this week, and has stopped with their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Lincoln.

F. Doyle, wife and child, have returned to Langdon after spending the winter at their former home in Illinois.

Mr. Peel, formerly of Paton and Peel of this place, spent a few days in London this week. He is now C.R. Lind agent at Bassano.
